Wednesday

Dear Therie,

Dorothy and I are here at home all alone and both are going to write you a letter.

All the family have gone to an auction at the village and Roy will come home with grain and go back after dinner to get the flocks. This will be the first time we have ever eaten alone here.

Dorothy wanted to go with them when they started off but is happy

now with her pencil and paper. She wants to tell you about the little girl she saw last Friday who walked down the street with her and held her hand. Little Lila Knight at the village.

Your nice letter came yesterday and I guess Mamma is busy making
suits for so many boys.

The sheep and lambs
were all out in the pasture in this long rain and two of the sheep died. They were just starved and it was too

cold for them.

Ray ready to go again
and your letter hardly finished.

Will do better next time

Love from

Ray, Dot and Lena
